

Attribute filters

With attribute filters you can exclude entities marked with the specific attributes from the coverage analysis. Filters are applied to assemblies, modules, classes and functions.

Syntax in the attribute filter editor is the following:

```
| attribute
```

where `attribute` is a fully qualified attribute type name.

Or

```
| [module]attribute
```

in case if you'd like to provide explicit specification of the `module` where attribute type is located