

PyCharm 3.4 Roadmap

PyCharm 3.4 roadmap

The release theme is "User experience and performance improvements"

Release date: April - May 2014

- Remote interpreters/Deployment hosts settings rework (traff)
 -  Special handling for vagrant based remote interpreters [PY-8751,PY-11439]
 -  Copy remote skeletons to different folder
-  Environment variables import (traff) as Before launch task
-  Project interpreters/Python interpreters (ktisha)
-  Resources/Template roots -> Project structure (ktisha)
-  Color schemes (vlan)
- Django custom tags settings - suppress or tags list
- IdeaVim plugin enhancements (vlan)
 -  Keymap-less shortcut conflicts handling [VIM-543]
 -  Key mapping commands [VIM-288]
- Django 1.7
 -  App-loading changes, tests affected (ktisha)
 -  Project creation admin enabled/disabled (ktisha)
-  Python parser error recovery (vlan)
-  Missing quick-fixes for inspections (list) (ktisha)
-  Goto class/symbol: resolve to modules and packages [PY-6923] (vlan)
-  Unresolved/unused imports [PY-4330, PY-1174], unused/undefined variables (vlan)
-  Live Templates for python [PY-2378] (vlan)
- Debugger enhancements: (traff)
 -  AppEngine debug
 -  exception breakpoints redesign
 -  Debug in Python console
 -  step over yield from
- Performance enhancements:
 -  Terminal memory consumption (traff)
 -  Python code insight (vlan)
 -  Quick-fixes
- Pull members up/down refactoring (link)
 -  General rework
 -  Properties support

Postponed to later versions:

- New project wizard
 - Two steps project dialog
 - Remote project dialog
- Django run manage.py command UX: history and arguments
-  Template languages (extended file types) (better design needed)
- Project settings serialization (do not create empty files in case of default settings, migrate to the new serialization mechanism)
- Scratch plugin [PY-3151] (vlan)

Legend

-  - Feature Implemented
-  - Under Investigation
-  - In Progress
-  - Postponed