

FAQ

If a license server is down or inaccessible, will users be locked out of their software?

If a license server is down or inaccessible, users will be warned but NOT locked out of the software. There is a 48-hour grace period for users to continue using the software before being locked out.