

Create grails application

You can create grails application in 2 ways:

- New empty grails application
- Add grails application in existing project

1. To create new grails application you should go to [File -> Create Project -> Create project from scratch -> Grails Application]

2. Use "New" action on every project file context menu to create new grails application ([New -> Grails -> Grails Application])

